BRISTOL

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE)
BRISTOL, April 1.—No small amount of damage was done in this district a few days ago when a "cub" hurricane swept over the country. The South Penn Oil Company had twelve derricks in the Salem district and fifteen in the Wolf Summit district blown down by the storm. The Southern Oil Company also had seven derricks down in the Salem district after the hurricane had passed. Several small buildings were moved off their foundations while the roofs of the larger ones suffered the most.

Fire destroyed the home of George Shaver on Tenmile creek near Marshville early Sunday morning. Not a thing was saved from the house. How the fire originated is not known. He carried no insurance.

Lihu and Jehu Shahan, of Salem Fork creek, went to Sedalia Sunday to visit their sister, Mrs. Columbia Tate, who is very ill at this time with an aneurism of the heart.

Mrs. Bertha Barnes and son, Claude, went to Athens, O., recently where they will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Davis, who formerly lived near here but who removed to Ohio about twelve years ago.

Several cases of red measles have been reported in Salem during the last few days, and those who have them are in a very serious condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Barnes and children were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Elbert E. Davison, of Cherry Camp run recently.

The Arthur Sheets Oil Company put in 500 feet of ten-inch casing at its well No. 1 on the Ed Sigley farm on Flinderton Monday.

The protracted meeting at the Methodist Episcopal church here closed last Wednesday night with six conversions.

Mrs. Mattie Hickman and children returned home a few days ago from Fairmont where they visited for two weeks.

Julius Matthey was visiting friends on Tenmile creek Sunday.

John R. Dennison was a business visitor in Clarksburg Saturday. Mr. Dennison has rented a large tract of land at the head of Indian run belonging to Thomas Haymond, of Clarksburg, for pasture.

A very enjoyable time was spent by a party of young folks Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Ritter on Salem fork creek in honor of their daughter, Miss Ora's, twenty-first birthday. The evening was spent by playing all the up-to-date games, and music, and a very delicious supper was served. Those who participated in this social gathering were Misses Nellie and Edna Shahan, Mell Carter, Mae Shahan, Minnie Harbert, Anna Davis, Blanche and Marie Meredith, Winnie Haney, Ora Ritter and Mrs. Bessie Bennett, and Messrs. Tillman Hickman, Lloyd Shahan, Rufus Davis and Earl Meredith. Nice presents and good wishes for many more happy returns of the day were left by all.

HOW ONE WOMAN WON

Her Health and Strength Back Again by The Use of Cardui.

Tampa, Fla.—In a letter from this city, Mrs. E. C. Corum writes: "I was all weakened and worn out with womanly troubles. My husband brought me some Cardui as a tonic, and, from the first day, it seemed to help."

I had almost lost my reason, but, thanks to Cardui, I did not. Soon, I felt and looked like a new woman. I think the remedy is wonderful. I recommend it to my friends, for I have received great benefit from it."

Cardui acts specifically on the weakened womanly organs, strengthening the muscles and nerves, and building them up to health.

It helps to refresh the worn-out nervous system and relieves the effects of overwork, both mental and physical.

Fifty years' successful use fully prove the merit of this purely vegetable, tonic remedy for women.

In every community, there live some who have been benefited by Cardui. The beneficial effects of this time tested woman's remedy, soon show themselves in many different ways.

Try it.

DEVONO GUILTY

Of Manslaughter is the Verdict of a Criminal Court Jury in His Case.

A criminal court jury at 8 o'clock Monday night returned a verdict of voluntary manslaughter against Joe Devono, a former Italian bartender, tried for the murder of Michael Giancy, an American bartender, shortly after Friday midnight, August 16, last in front of a saloon in Glen Elk then owned by the late Elmer V. Lowe, at which time Devono also killed James M. DeVine, another American bartender, using a lemon paring knife in both instances with which he stabbed them to almost instant death. The penalty can not be less than one year nor more than five years in the penitentiary. Tuesday morning a motion was made for a new trial which the court will pass on later. It was a second trial, the jury in the first trial having failed to agree upon a verdict. An indictment against him charging him with murdering DeVine still stands.

ROBBERY

Of Drunken Man in Rear of Saloon is Charged against Prisoner.

Police Chief Harry L. Brooks swore out a warrant Tuesday morning in Justice T. G. Nicewarner's court against Jack Iveli, who had been arrested by policemen, charging him with robbing J. W. Barnhouse of $7.50 in money late Monday afternoon in the rear of Burke's saloon on Fourth street while Barnhouse was dead drunk.

Two men say they saw Iveli take a visitor in the city.

the money from Barnhouse. One of them declares Iveli robbed the fellow and the other says Barnhouse merely gave him the money for safe keeping. When arrested Iveli had $7.30 in his pockets. The justice will hear the case within a day or two.
